III. Read the following passage. Select the best word from the selection in brackets. Circle the correct answer.

Clothes can tell a lot about a person. Some people like very colorful [people] lives [clothes]. They want everyone to look at [him] [her] [them]. They [can] [want] [look] to be the center of things.

Other [people] like to wear nice clothes, but their clothes are not colorful or fancy. They do not hate [like] people to look at them. There are also some people who care [wear] the same thing all the time. They do not care if anyone looks at them. They do not care what anyone [tells] [thinks] [looks] about them.
