VI. Course Description:

This course places students in a second social service agency to expand their knowledge and experience in client contact and the responsibilities and activities essential to the delivery of social services. Fieldwork is designed to provide the student with an opportunity to practice skills learned in an agency/institution environment. Working with professionals, clients, and patients will assist students to function effectively as a member of a social services team.

Students are required to attend a weekly supervision class.

This course is the Capstone Experience.

VII. Course Outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, the student will:

1. Apply the skills and knowledge acquired in the classroom to client contact within a social services setting.
2. Perform professionally, legally, and ethically, displaying cultural competence, according to the Ethical Standards for Human Service Professionals.
3. Demonstrate personal values and attitudes impacting helping relationships.
4. Apply research concepts to historical and current practice related to the human service profession.
5. Complete a Mental Status Exam paragraph and a Plan for Treatment including a diagnosis from the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-5).
6. Define the Agency’s service delivery methods and which services are offered to meet the needs of the Agency’s client population.

VIII. Course Outline:

- Attendance at Weekly Supervision class is mandatory. If three (3) classes are missed, the student must meet with the Instructor.
- Attendance at a weekly or biweekly meeting with the Field Supervisor

eTutoring
eTutoring is a professional tutoring service, paid for by PCCC, provided free to all PCCC students. The URL is www.etutoring.org. Students upload writing assignments (for this or any class) to eTutoring and receive feedback on their assignments within 48 hours. Information on using eTutoring is available in the Writing Center and at http://pccc.libguides.com/etutoring.

Tutoring Center
Help with this paper is available at the Tutoring Center on the second floor of the Memorial Building.

Writing Center
Students may take any writing assignment to the Writing Center for extra help. The Center also offers a series of workshops designed to help students with general writing concerns. The Writing Center’s libguide (website) is located at http://pccc.libguides.com/writingcenter and gives information about the Center, scheduling appointments, and upcoming workshops.

You need to make an appointment to use the Writing Center. Information on setting up an account and using WCOnline (the scheduling software) can also be found at http://pccc.libguides.com/writingcenter by clicking on the “Make an Appointment” tab. Going to the Writing Center unprepared will prevent you from getting help with your writing.
